OPPORTUNITY FOR ARTISTS

The Art on Bus Shelters project aims to enhance the aesthetics of bus shelters in Shellharbour City. The project celebrates art in unexpected places and provides a new and different way to showcase visual artworks. The project has received extremely positive feedback from the community.

Shellharbour City Council is calling for applications from artists, photographers or designers interested in exhibiting artwork on bus shelters around the city. Artwork will be displayed as an image printed onto a large decal and exhibited for a three-month period. Artists working in any medium are encouraged to apply, providing that the artwork can be rendered as a 2D print at the required resolution. There are four bus shelter locations currently available, with two more sites coming in the next few months. The six sites will allow for the display of up to twelve unique artworks.

Artwork for these sites should be unique in design and contemporary in style, have conceptual links to the surrounding area and should reflect the local context, people and place of each site. The project seeks to activate space and add vibrancy.

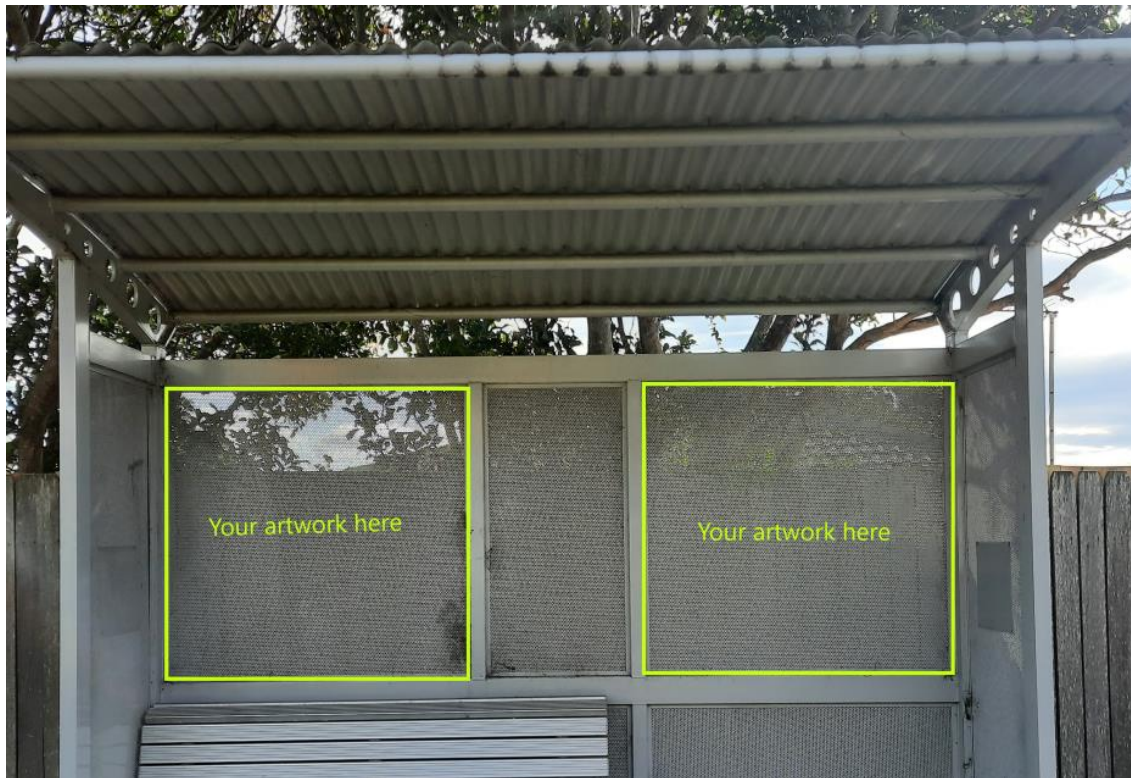

ARTIST BRIEF

The selected artists and/or designers will develop artwork that will be used to enhance four to six bus shelters located within Shellharbour City. New work, or existing work that can be adapted, will be considered.

The artwork should respond to the below aims:

- Be visually bold and vibrant;
- Demonstrate artistic excellence in concept and design;
- Be visually appropriate and suitable for people of all ages;
- Not contain business logos, advertising material, or imagery that is offensive or obscene.

The designs will be printed and installed as decal stickers. The artist/designer will have final proof before print. The decals will be installed as illustrated below.

- The selected artist will be required to develop designs/artworks for all sites
- The dimensions of the printable area is 1100mm (wide) X 1070mm (high)
